

Privacy Policy – Expenso

Last updated: 2025

Expenso is a personal expense tracking application designed to help users manage, track, and analyze their financial transactions securely. Your privacy is important to us, and this Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, and protect your information.

1. Information We Collect

- Personal Information: Email address and password provided during registration.
- Financial Data: Expense records, categories, amounts, and transaction notes entered by the user.
- Device & Usage Data: Basic app usage data to improve performance and reliability.

2. How We Use Your Information

We use the collected information to:

- Create and manage user accounts
- Display dashboards, transactions, and reports
- Improve app features and user experience
- Ensure security and prevent unauthorized access

3. Data Storage & Security

Your data is stored securely using industry-standard security measures. Passwords are encrypted, and we take reasonable steps to protect your information from unauthorized access, loss, or misuse.

4. Data Sharing

Expenso does not sell, rent, or trade your personal data. Your information is not shared with third parties except where required by law or to provide essential app services.

5. User Rights

You have the right to access, update, or delete your account and personal data at any time. You may request account deletion by contacting our support team.

6. Children's Privacy

Expenso is not intended for use by individuals under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children.

7. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted within the app or on our official website.
